

PART B — (5 × 16 = 80 marks)

11. (a) What is hundred percent inspection? Explain the various parameters involved in it. Compare this with sampling inspection.

Or

- (b) Explain in detail the application of quality assurance in various stages of fabric manufacture.

12. (a) Explain in detail the various sampling techniques, their importance and use in the quality assessment of garments.

Or

- (b) Give a detailed account of ISO 9000 quality management system.

13. (a) Give a detailed account of the evaluating systems available in fabric manufacture.

Or

- (b) Explain in detail the scheduling, practices employed for producing, different styles in garment.

14. (a) Explain in detail the quality control measures employed in pattern making and grading.

Or

- (b) Give an account of the quality control measures employed in trims and accessories attached to garments.

15. (a) Explain in detail the role of quality control inspection agencies in garment production units.

Or

- (b) Give an account of the quality control system and standards for garments packing and shipping.
-